Chemical Claim: Company Information

Applicable Only to General CBI Claims	Yes	No	CBI
A person may assert a claim of confidentiality for the specific chemical identity of a chemical substance as described in § 711.15(b)(3) of this part only if the identity of that chemical substance is treated as confidential in the Master Inventory File as of the time the report is submitted for that chemical substance. Generic chemical identities and accession numbers may not be claimed as confidential. To assert a claim of confidentiality for the identity of a reportable chemical substance, you must submit with the report detailed written answers to the questions from subsection (b) and to the following questions.
1. Will disclosure of the information claimed as confidential likely cause substantial harm to your business's competitive position? If you answered yes, describe the substantial harmful effects that would likely result to your competitive position if the information is disclosed, including how a competitor could use such information and the causal relationship between the disclosure and the harmful effects. test	X
2. To the extent your business has disclosed the information to others (both internally and externally), has your business taken precautions to protect the confidentiality of the disclosed information? If yes, please explain and identify the specific measures or internal controls your business has taken to protect the information claimed as confidential. test	X		X
3.A. Is any of the information claimed as confidential required to be publicly disclosed under any other Federal law? If yes, please explain.		X
3.B. Does any of the information claimed as confidential otherwise appear in any public documents, including (but not limited to) safety data sheets, advertising or promotional material, professional or trade publications, state, local, or Federal agency files, or any other media or publications available to the general public? If yes, please explain why the information should be treated as confidential.		X	X
3.C. Does any of the information claimed as confidential appear in a patent or patent application? If yes, please provide the associated patent number and explain why the information should be treated as confidential. test	X
4. Does any of the information you are claiming as confidential constitute a trade secret? If yes, please explain how the information you are claiming as confidential constitutes a trade secret. test	X		X
5. Is the claim of confidentiality intended to last less than 10 years (see TSCA section 14(e)(1)(B))? If yes, please indicate the number of years (between 1–10 years) or the specific date after which the claim is withdrawn.		X
6. Has EPA, another federal agency, or court made any confidentiality determination regarding information associated with this chemical substance? If yes, please provide the circumstances associated with the prior determination, whether the information was found to be entitled to confidential treatment, the entity that made the decision, and the date of the determination.		X	X
